

PROCLAMATION

Discharging the levying or transporting of Souldiers vvithout Licence.

HAR LBS by the Grace of God, King of Great Brittain, France and related, Defen der of the Faith to Macers or Messengers at armes, Our Sheriff in that part committy and severally, specially, constitute, Greeting; torasmuch, as, We by On Produmation, dated the twenty third day of July, one thousand fix bundred, and seventy four years, did probib and discharge any person or persons to Levy any men in this Kingdom or to take or transport any of Our Sub lette thereof theo she fervice of any forraign Prince or State, without Our Special Licence: and discharged all Matters of this to receive on board, or transport them under all bigbelt pains to be inflicted on the contra. veeners. Requiring thereby the fermorers of Our Customes and Excise their collectors and waiters, to take special notice of any such persons whom they should find passing furth of this Kingdom upon the foresaid accompt; and to flop them in their peffere, at they would be answerable: And if need were, that they require the concurrance of the Magifirates of Burges and others in authority under Us, to be aiding and affifting to themtherein. Likeas, Webfanother Proclemation, of the date, the first day of Odober, the year foresaid did renew Our said Proclamation; and further, did probibite and discharge all masters of ships to receive on board or to transport to any forreign country any shields of this Kingdom, who had been levied without Our special licence, or any pade or fea-men, unless they bad a pass under the band of any owens Our anthorize and require my of the prooffensieller; represente meaning remarks on of the full to of the filling dom, followers or others merchanism to ferve in any forenign country without married as faid in to cause the them in their paffage and imprison them and to cause seife upon and secure the persons who had ingaged them or should be human to have been dealing with and soluting them thereto, until they should find causion, to answer for the fame, and that they bould not levy nor transpore any of Our subjects to any forraign fervice much power to any Prive Comfelior to give fuch orders as should be necessarie for that effect to the magistrates of Blogds or any of ding forces, who are thereby required to put the sorders inexecution as they wil be answerable at their highwill; and it is thereby declared shat such persons as bad alreadie controveened the foresaid Proclamation oft and conferred conferms o the senour thereof, as at length is constanted in the faids Procla-Ind whereas spee diverfe important and weighty confiderations, Website thought fit again to re-Wesherefore, wishadvice of the Lords of Our Privite Conneil do dordains the fame to continue and fland in ful forceand to be puntime coming after the form and tenom thereof, and under the pains And ordainsthese persents to be printed, and publication to usegh, and other places that none persond ignorance. The d Severally Our full power be ther Our besters, delivering bearer.

videy of June, oneshousand fine bundred and seventy

AL Olber ChSi Concilii.